

2018 World Family Therapy Congress Bangkok, Thailand Featured Presenters

John k. Miller

85% of the Earth's population reside

Family Therapy in the “Majority world” Creating and Adapting Models to Fit Non-Western Contexts

Most models of family therapy were developed in the West, where only 15% of the world's population resides. This presentation will explore, with case examples, the utility of adapting Western family therapy for “majority world” contexts where over 85% of the Earth's population reside

Most models of family therapy were developed in the West, where only 15% of the world's population resides. This presentation will explore, with case examples, the utility of adapting Western family therapy for “majority world” contexts where over

John Miller is a Professor at Fudan University in Shanghai, as well as an adjunct Professor at the Royal University of Phnom Penh in Cambodia. He is a past Fulbright Senior Research Scholar to China (2009-2010) and the founder of the Sino-American Family Therapy Institute (SAFTI). He has recently published several articles and a book chapter on subjects related to the presentation.

Susanna Wong Ip

Filial Piety, a legacy of Confucianism has become problem to family therapy in modern China.

Cultural differences between East and West may be confusing goals in family therapy. Filial Piety, a legacy of the Confucian tradition, highly regarded as a virtue in the traditional Chinese family, is suspected of reasons for depression, anxiety, and aggression.

Susanna Wong Ip is a family therapist, trainer and supervisor. She travels frequently to China to conduct seminars, workshops and to train counselors. She is also a professor of Bethel Bible Seminary and Gratia Christian College.

Zhao Xudong, M.D.

Systemic Family Therapy: a useful therapeutic model for Chinese families

Chinese therapists have merged systemic family theories and traditional Chinese approaches to mental health leading to new and novel methods in clinical settings. In this workshop, Dr. Zhao will demonstrate some of these novel practices using video recordings of his clinical cases.

Wendel Ray

Virginia Satir, MSW, and the First Family Therapy Training Program: Celebrating Satir's 100th Birthday

When psychiatrist Don Jackson founded The Mental Research Institute (MRI), he invited Virginia Satir to be Director of the Family Therapy Training Program. Drawing from 123 surviving audio recordings of family therapy interviews, teaching seminars, lectures, print documents and photos, Satir's pioneering teaching of Conjoint Family Therapy will be a Featured Presentation at the 2018 World Family Therapy Congress.

Wendel A. Ray, Ph.D. is the Don D. Jackson Archivist and a professor in the Marriage and Family Therapy Program at the University of Louisiana, at Monroe, Louisiana, USA.

David Hale

David Hale, Ph.D. is the Director of the Online Systemic Studies Program in the Marriage and Family Therapy Program at the University of Louisiana, at Monroe, Louisiana, USA.

Susanna Wong Ip

Becoming More Fully Human: Peace Within, Peace Between and Peace Among

At one of her workshops toward the end of her career, Virginia Satir (1916-1988) said, "I'm working now for something called - Becoming More Fully Human - so that we can bring together all of this information and make it a part of ourselves. I think peace in the world has to do with peace in the human being. My peace work is Peace Within - meaning harmony. Peace Between - meaning congruence. And Peace Among - meaning that everyone out there can be valued." In this presentation I will share my picture of, "bring together all of this information", that Virginia Satir referred to, plus suggestions for how we can "make it a part of ourselves", and for what? Hopefully, for world peace.

Anna Low is the founding President of the Satir Centre (Singapore). She has served as a Board Member of the International Family Therapy Association (IFTA) and is its current Recording Secretary. Anna is a Clinical Member of the Satir Institute of the Pacific and was a recipient of the Satir TST Leadership award in 2011 for her leadership and contribution to the development of the Satir Model in Singapore.

Anna obtained her Degree in Accountancy from the National University of Singapore and Masters degree in Counselling from the University of South Australia. She has also received extensive training in the Satir Model as a therapist, clinical supervisor and trainer. Anna is a Master Clinical Member and Approved Clinical Supervisor with the Singapore Association for Counselling and is also a Registered Social Service Professional in Singapore.